

Community Partnership Opportunities 2026

Every animal that walks through our doors has a story. Some are looking for a second chance; others are just looking for a friend. Your business drives our local economy; our mission drives local compassion. When these two forces meet, incredible things happen.

They can't ask for help, so we're asking for them.

In this community, the bond between people and pets is everywhere. By aligning with BHS, you're tapping into that passion and showing your customers that your brand is a proud part of the team working to keep our animals safe, happy, and loved. You stand for second chances that fill our lives with love and make our town feel like home.
